Count II

11. On or about June 24, 2013, the MREC received a complaint about Respondents from Darren and Starr Pearson, who alleged Respondents owed them money from a real estate purchase contract ("Pearsons' Complaint").

12. On June 25, 2013, the MREC mailed a copy of the complaint to Respondents at the address registered with the MREC, requesting they (Emphasis added).

15. The MREC also has jurisdiction pursuant to Paragraph 29, section E of the 2013 Disciplinary Order, which provides as follows:

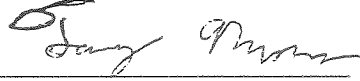

Upon the expiration and successful completion of the disciplinary period, Respondent's respective real estate broker officer license and real estate broker associates license shall be fully restored if all other requirements of law have been satisfied; provided, however, that in the event the Commission determines that Respondent has violated any term or condition of this Order, the Commission may, in its discretion, after an evidentiary hearing, suspend, revoke, or otherwise lawfully discipline Respondent's real estate broker officer license and real estate broker associates license.

16. Respondents' failure to adhere to Paragraph 29, sections A and D of the 2013 Disciplinary Order provides cause to further discipline Respondents' licenses under § 324.042, RSMo Supp. 2013, and Paragraph 29, section E of the 2013 Disciplinary Order.

Based on the above, Petitioner requests the MREC hold a hearing to determine the above violations occurred and to impose further discipline pursuant to § 324.042, RSMo Supp. 2013, and for other such relief as may be appropriate.
